Name Michela Benassi

Organisation North Dublin Citizens Information

Statement I have a keen interest in housing issues. I recently completed the housing advocacy course with the community law and mediation centre. In my role as development manager of the blanchardstown citizens information centre I witness the issues and difficulties clients have and support the staff in helping them with local authorities and private landlords. I recently introduced a housing advice clinic in the cic provided by the community law and mediation centre and we cooperate with them on behalf of many clients. I would be grateful of the opportunity to contribute at the housing strategy Committee.
