

Flip the Script: the pilot course

Are you a health and social care professional working with adults with intellectual disability?

Do you want to support people to learn independent decision making skills?

Learn to facilitate a group that will

- Support the learning of decision making skills
- Create everyday decision making opportunities
- Navigate risk, conflict and failure together

Apply to take part in our 8 week online pilot course

Click here to apply

Beyond
Ordinary